

WIOA Training Quick Facts

Customized Training

Customized training can help an employer or group of employers meet their unique needs for skilled workers by providing a 50% reimbursement of the training cost associated with a new or recently hired employee. In limited circumstances, customized training may be available for existing employees.

Businesses Benefit Through Increased

- Productivity
- Employee Skills
- Employee Retention

Businesses Receive Training That Is

- Tailored to the industry need
- Delivered in a time frame and location convenient to the business and employee
- Reimbursable up to 50% of the costs

Employees Benefit Through Increased

- Marketable Skills
- Possibility for Higher Wages
- Job Security
- Job Retention

Businesses May Qualify if they:

- Commit to hire or retain persons who successfully complete the customized training program.
- Have workers not earning a self-sufficient wage and they need training in one of the following:
 1. The introduction by the employer of new technologies;
 2. The introduction to new production or service procedures; or
 3. Upgrading to new jobs that require additional skills/workplace literacy.

To See if the Company Qualifies:

Contact your local Illinois workNet Center or the Department of Commerce Workforce Representative to get help with determining if the company meets the qualifications for using customized training.

Visit www.illinoisworknet.com/training for additional information on how your business can benefit from this opportunity and others like it.

Illinois
Department of Commerce
& Economic Opportunity
OFFICE OF EMPLOYMENT & TRAINING

