

FORGE

Effingham Regional Manufacturing Collaborative

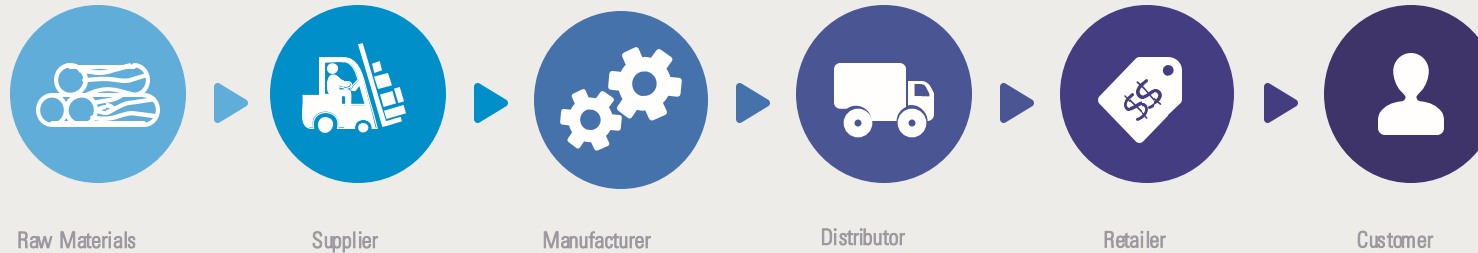

FOCUSING ON REGIONAL GROWTH AND EDUCATION

WHO ARE THE PARTNERS IN A MANUFACTURING PARTNERSHIP?

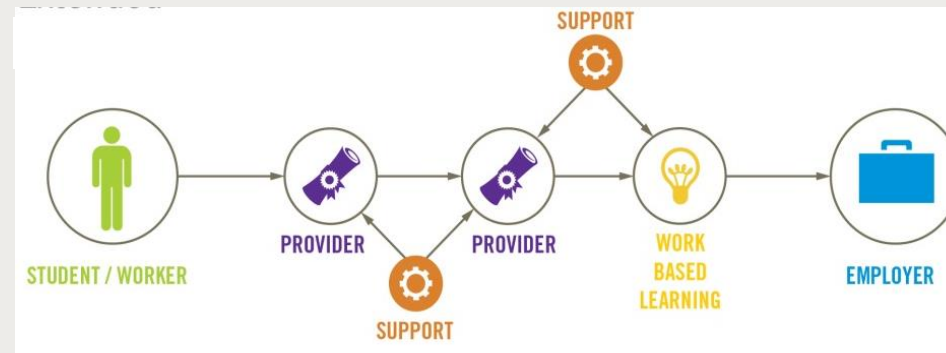

Moving to a Talent Supply Chain Approach

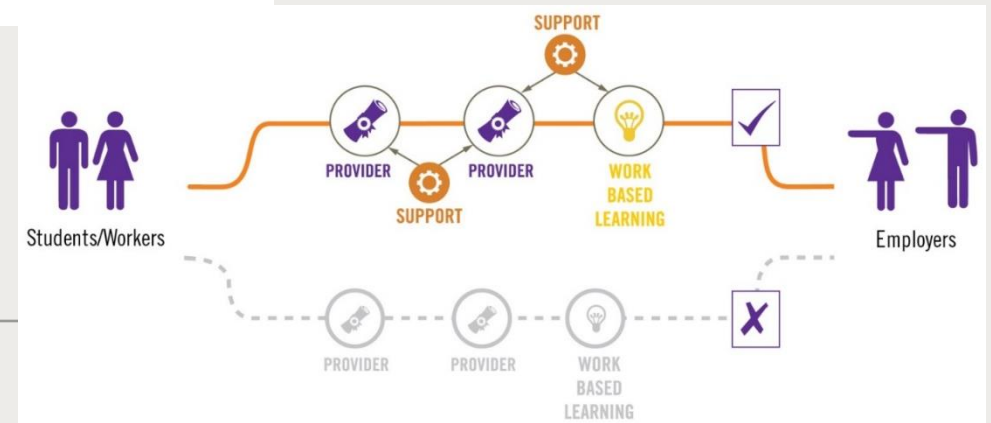

1

2

3

Supply chain management: products vs. talent

Demand guides the partners, preparation and outcomes in both supply chains.

1 Forecast demand

PRODUCTS

Units needed
and timing

TALENT

Job openings
and timing

TPM aligns talent partners with employer demand.

People bring choice and career goals. Strong pipelines support employer and worker success.

Supply chain management: products vs. talent

Demand guides the partners, preparation and outcomes in both supply chains.

TPM aligns talent partners with employer demand.

People bring choice and career goals. Strong pipelines support employer and worker success.

Supply chain management: products vs. talent

Demand guides the partners, preparation and outcomes in both supply chains.

TPM aligns talent partners with employer demand.

People bring choice and career goals. Strong pipelines support employer and worker success.

Supply chain management: products vs. talent

Demand guides the partners, preparation and outcomes in both supply chains.

TPM aligns talent partners with employer demand.

People bring choice and career goals. Strong pipelines support employer and worker success.

Supply chain management: products vs. talent

Demand guides the partners, preparation and outcomes in both supply chains.

TPM aligns talent partners with employer demand.

People bring choice and career goals. Strong pipelines support employer and worker success.