SELF-EVALUATION OF ESSENTIAL SKILLS

Several state agencies, with a direct interest in the skill growth of our state residents, created a framework for Essential Employability Skills. Illinois workNet created a tool to allow an individual to self-assess their status/knowledge of the top 10 skills. This is a self-accessed assessment, but partners can prompt students to take the assessment. The categories on self-evaluation directly correlate with the Worksite Evaluation.

- Computer Literacy
- Attendance & Dependability
- Self-Presentation
- Communication Skills
- Independence and Initiative
- Teamwork
- Positive Attitude
- Problem Solving & Critical Thinking
- Work Ethic
- Quality of Work

OBSERVATIONAL EVALUATION

- Students are observed, then feedback is given.

OBSERVED MULTIPLE TIMES

This ensures a skill set is habitual rather than a temporary performance. A rubric provides a way to measure the observation.

Action: 16 skills are covered in 5 basic sections: Fundamentals, Work Ethic/Character, Problem Solving, Interpersonal, and Computer.

Students Practice: Skills are practiced in a classroom setting instead of at a worksite.

Results: Students earn a yes/no in fundamentals and either meet standards or exceed standards in the other areas.

Student Access: Any student can view evaluation results under “My Dashboard”.

WORKSITE EVALUATION

- Worksite Evaluation is conducted by a worksite supervisor.

WORKER'S SKILLS OBSERVED

Observations happen in different situations during a work experience.

Opportunity for Feedback: This evaluation provides a way for a student to receive constructive feedback on job performance within specific parameters.

Easy to Use: Partners can email the evaluation to the supervisor or complete it on the worksite's behalf. A rubric provides the measurement levels.

This evaluation syncs with the Self-Evaluation using the same measurements but varies based upon the specific evaluation.
