

Purpose: There are many great service providers and programs that are available throughout Illinois to help you get through tough times. These services and programs provide support to help you reach your training and employment goals.

Steps:	Find It Here: www.illinoisworknet.com
1. Use the Illinois workNet Service Finder to search for locations across the state that provide referrals and in-person assistance. Referrals are community or statewide providers that help people in need of specialized assistance and support. This assistance includes: In-person Locations - The in-person services include locations that offer: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Workforce Innovation Opportunity Act (WIOA) services • Services (as part of what they do) to help individuals and employers achieve their career, training, and employment goals. Some in-person locations require enrollment in their program before they can offer assistance. Take a look at the services they offer and see if enrollment is required before you go to their location.	 Network & Connect
2. Use the guides and resources that are available for specific individuals such as disabilityworks and the Veterans Guide.	 Updates & Help
3. Learn more about financial management, violence prevention, and more by reading articles for Managing Your Work Success.	 Updates & Help
4. Subscribe to news and updates and follow Illinois workNet social media to receive updates on new programs, announcements, training opportunities, and more.	 Updates & Help  Network & Connect
5. Use the event calendar to find local information sessions and training events to help you be a competitive job candidate and successful employee.	 Network & Connect

This workforce product was funded by a grant awarded by the U.S. Department of Labor's Employment and Training Administration. The product was created by the grantee and does not necessarily reflect the official position of the U.S. Department of Labor. The Department of Labor makes no guarantees, warranties, or assurances of any kind, express or implied, with respect to such information, including any information on linked sites and including, but not limited to, accuracy of the information or its completeness, timeliness, usefulness, adequacy, continued availability, or ownership. This product is copyrighted by the institution that created it. Internal use by an organization and/or personal use by an individual for non-commercial purposes is permissible. All other uses require the prior authorization of the copyright owner.