Equity and Program Culture

Returning Resident Clean Jobs Training Program 2024-25 Program Manual

Chapter 2: Equity and Program Culture

Chapter Overview

By the end of this chapter, grantees will be able to:

- Articulate why equity is at the center of CEJA and the CEJA Returning Resident Clean Jobs
- Describe the core equity values that serve as the program's foundation.
- Center equity, diversity, inclusion, welcoming, accessibility, and belonging into the program's culture, each of the program's elements, and each phase of the program.
- Articulate how grantees can demonstrate compliance with federal and state laws that

The Climate and Equitable Jobs Act (CEJA) workforce programs are equity focused. This chapter will explore how workforce programs can foster an equity-focused program culture that empowers participants to engage fully, develop professionally, and reach their fullest potential.

Building an Equitable Clean Energy Workforce

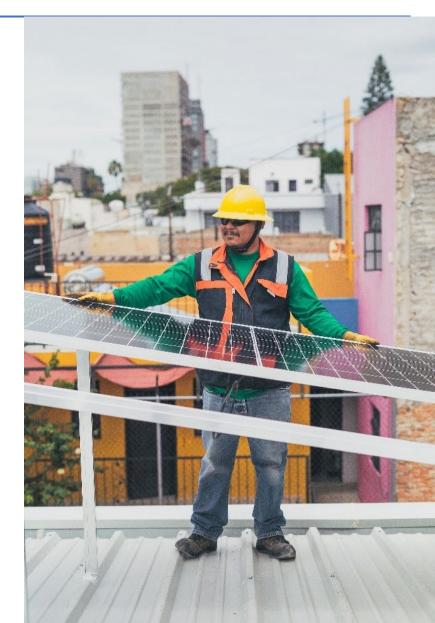

The CEJA Returning Resident Clean Jobs Training Program, as part of the Climate and Equitable Jobs Act legislation, was uniquely designed to:

- Provide training and career pathways for targeted groups that have historically been left out of workforce opportunities in clean energy, including:
 - People who live in environmental justice and R3 communities.
 - People with barriers to employment, including formerly incarcerated people.
 - People who are current or former members of the foster care system.
- Help people build careers in clean energy that provide sustainable living wages, contributing to
- Remove barriers to training participation and job attainment.
- Provide participants with the skills for lifelong job security.

Chapter 2 Overview

This chapter in the Program Manual provides information:

- Articulating why equity is at the center of CEJA and the CEJA Returning Residents Clean Jobs Training Program.
- Describing the core equity values that serve as the program's foundation.
- Centering equity, diversity, inclusion, welcoming, accessibility, and belonging in the program's culture, each of the program's elements, and each phase of the program.
- Articulating how grantees can demonstrate compliance with federal and state laws that support equity.

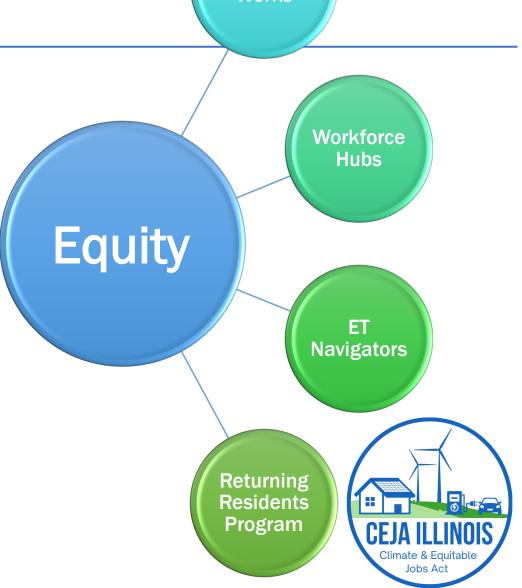

CEJA: Equity at the Center

Climate Works

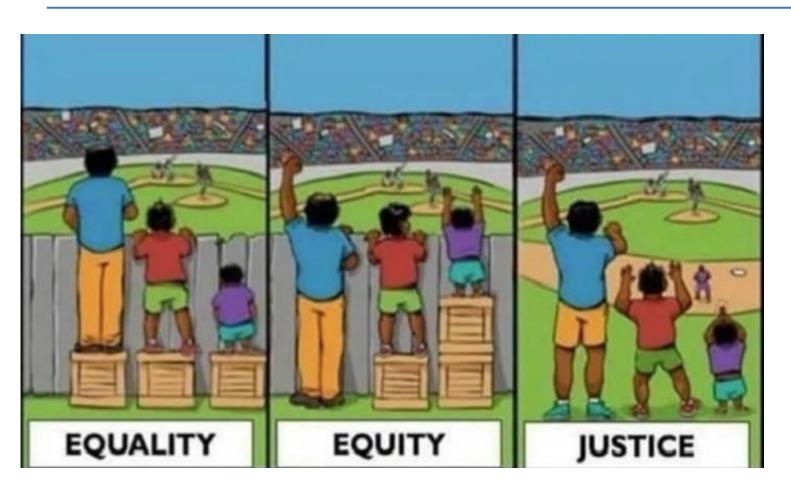

CEJA Workforce Programs center equity to:

Provide training and career pathways for equity-investment eligible participants.

Provide eligible participants with the skills for lifelong job security.

CEJA Workforce Programs Center Equity

Equity recognizes that each person has different circumstances. It allocates resources based on need and removes barriers to reach the desired outcome.

Equity Focused Culture and Values

Core Values

Core values are the core ethics or standards the CEJA programs are expected to abide by. They serve as a guiding light for behavior and decision-making.

Culture

Culture is a pattern of basic, shared assumptions learned by a group (Schein, 2010). It is a pattern of beliefs, values, rituals, relationships, and practices shared by the CEJA programs, grantees, and participants.

Core Equity Values

Chat Question

"When thinking about delivering the Returning Residents Program, what does an equity focus look like compared to an equality focus?"

Chat Question

"What are some specific barriers returning residents may face when acclimating back into society?"

Learning Styles

Assessments:

- > Reflective writing prompts
- Dialogue/informal interviews
- ➤ Aptitude tests/quizzes

Evaluations:

- ➤ Role-playing on-the-job scenarios
- Formal demonstrations with evaluation and feedback by the instructor

Chat Question

"What additional tools might you use when assessing or evaluating your participants?"
